

CV - Michel Camus

Mr. Michel Camus holds a M.Sc. and a Ph.D in Epidemiology and biostatistics from McGill University and an MBA from the Université de Montréal. After teaching economics and sociology, he completed his studies in epidemiology and has been working since 1997 as a research scientist in environmental epidemiology. Dr. Camus specializes in environmental health impact and risk assessments of air pollution and contaminated waste sites. He has acted 5 years as expert-scientist on Quebec's Health Ministry's Advisory Committee on Asbestos. He is a professeur-chercheur associé in the Research Centre on Population Health of the University of Montreal Hospital Centre.